

BRIEF CITY NEWS

FOR JUSTICE OF THE PEACE AT NACO

C. B. Mabey is the regular republican nominee for justice of the peace of the Naco precinct.

Henkel, the jeweler, will arrive from Chicago on Friday.

The regular weekly meeting of the Eagles was held last night.

The latest arrivals from Iron Mountain are Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Boston.

The new bank of Tombstone opened its doors on Monday and is now ready for business.

Mrs. Kinsey, of the Kinsey house, is having a large tank erected on the premises, which will be used as a fire protection.

The Benson train was a hungry proposition yesterday afternoon, only three men, no ladies and a canary bird arriving.

A new tailoring establishment will shortly be opened by F. W. Krieger in the place formerly occupied by the Gem restaurant.

The new Greene hotel at Cananea will cost $150,000.00. There is nothing green about a fellow who pays for a bed in that house.

Nichols Mateovich, W. D. Winters and H. D. Sutton have telegrams awaiting them at the office of the Postal Telegraph company.

The Tucson Sash, Door and Mill company are so crowded with orders that they have refused to make any further contracts for the present.

The first bull fight advertised for Cananea must have come off somewhere else as the pen was not completed at the appointed time.

Bob Tate, of the Fishpond, is having the shacks in the rear of his saloon torn away and will replace them with more substantial buildings.

We have put forth every effort to get a shoe to wear, and have found them in the Selz, at $3.50 and Packard at $5.00.

Arrangements for the grand ball to be given by the A. O. U. W. are fast being made, and on the 27th of this month it will take place. It will be the social event of the season.

John W. Ball, for sometime connected in an important capacity with the Bisbee road, left for Missouri yesterday, where he will reside permanently.

The Copper Glance is doing the big improvement act on top of grounds, as well as under it, and a model city will soon be laid out on their beautiful property.

McKenna, the handy ball boy, has accepted the position left vacant by the resignation of John W. Ball in the El Paso and Southwestern company in Bisbee.

Ed Land, district attorney, accompanied by his little daughter, is in San Francisco on a visit to his parents. He will be absent for some two months.

Mrs. Elliott, of Castle hill, is making extensive improvements on her lodging house, and several new rooms are being added and otherwise improved.

Manuel Ruiz, a dishwasher, at the Copper Queen hotel got hilariously drunk yesterday and is now employed by the city for the next seven days. Judge Brown thought it the best place for him.

Dutch Baker's gang is planning a fishing, hunting and prospecting excursion to the Fronteras country in the near future. They will take "Mescal" along to tell all about how it happens.

Mrs. Peter Gill desires to thank the public in general and her many friends in particular for the sympathy and kindness shown her during the sickness of her children recently, and the death and burial of her little daughter Nellie.

Jim Nichols was the under party in a scrap with a jack rabbit one day this week, having wounded it and chased it for some distance he ran over it, the rabbit coming out on top. Jim was badly scratched but says it was a mesquite bush.

The local failed to make connection at Benson yesterday with the east bound, which was several hours late, consequently no western mail. The railroad management dispatched a special to Benson last evening and belated passengers and mail arrived somewhat late. Western mail can be had this morning.

The suburbs of Bisbee are becoming a net work of railroads. A crew of two hundred men are now employed laying steel on the numerous branches and spurs leading to the city and the various shafts. The foreman of the gang thinks that the work of track laying will be completed by Wednesday evening.

Notice.

All members of Bisbee democratic club are requested to meet at their club rooms at Angus hotel at 7 o'clock this evening.

J. B. Henderson, Secretary.

Mining Suit.

On October 20th suit was filed by George Berthold against the Modern Copper Mining company in an action to quiet title in favor of plaintiff, to a two-thirds interest in certain claims west of town and now claimed by the defendant.

Stage Line Suspended.

B. F. Graham has suspended his stage line between Bisbee and Naco since the railroad schedule went into effect. It looks like the new plan is calculated to annihilate stage traffic between these points and turn the broad valley between Don Luis and Naco to the jack rabbits.

Sad News.

Charles Thomas received the sad news last evening that his brother, Geo. H. Thomas, was dying in Tombstone and immediately left for that place. His brother is an old timer in Cochise county and highly regarded and the outcome of the unfortunate news is awaited with anxiety on the part of many friends.

An Old Timer.

Bert Pratt, formerly of Globe, was in Bisbee yesterday on his way from Cananea to Globe. Bert is one of the boys from away back in Globe, having served on the local force for years as deputy sheriff and being a distinguished member of Pioneer Hose company No. 1 in Globe. Bert is not stuck on Cananea. He did not assign any particular reason, but having one of the best looking better halves in the territory at home, it is not hard to understand.

Gun Club Tournament.

The big shooting tournament of the Arizona Sportman's Association will commence Friday and at eight a. m. the first gun will be fired. Assurances have been given that this will be the best attended shoot of the association. The Bisbee cracks are supposed to maintain their high places in the shooting ranks, and carry off a majority of the firsts. One of the pleasant features of the meet here will be the banquet to be given at the Copper Queen hotel to the visiting guests. At the banquet only wild game will be served, with the one exception of oysters. The menu will embrace wild ducks, quail, rabbits, bear meats and other choice viands, not to mention several of the beverages that cheer. A full program of the events will be published in Thursday morning's Review.

Old Dominion to Resume.

The Old Dominion company are preparing to resume operations and expect to blow in one furnace on Saturday next, and as soon as crews can be organized and the services of a competent smelter foreman can be secured the second furnace will be placed in commission and two stacks run continuously through the winter. As a consequence the production of copper will be doubled, and in order to maintain the larger output the force employed at the mine, as well as at the smelter, will have to be increased. No information has been given out regarding the proposed new plant and the sinking of a new shaft, and probably nothing will be done in that direction for some little time. Expert Frank H. Probert, who was here for a month making a thorough examination of the Old Dominion property, completed the work and left for Los Angeles several days ago. Globe Belt.

Progress at Tombstone.

The large pump on the 600-foot level of the new shaft at Tombstone is about completed, and the cement cylinder is well under way. The shaft will be sunk two hundred feet, where another large pump will be installed. The water will be lifted to the tank on the six hundred, and there forced to the surface through a pipe sixteen inches in circumference. The capacity

Girl's Dresses

Ready to put on, and as pretty as any girl could wish.

Our line of dresses for Fall is just in, and while there are many styles, there is scarcely more than one of any one size and style.

We are as careful to avoid duplications in dresses for girls as in tailored suits for women.

The price range is from $1.25 to $6.00 and $7.00

Fall Shirt Waists

Recent arrivals of Fall Shirt Waists makes our line at from $2.00 to 3.50 particularly strong—and it is these prices that most women seem to want to pay for flannel waists.

Some new ones at $4.50 and $5.00 are beauties—made with silk piping, as the very stylish waists are being made now.

The assortment of waists for fall is equal to that shown last summer, and that's saying a great deal.
